October Make-Art Saturday Schedule

1:30-3:30 pm

$10 donation includes supplies
class limited to 15 participants

In art, there are no mistakes,
just happy little accidents.

RELEASE YOUR INNER ARTIST!

Be willing to play and make friends.
Express your creativity in a nurturing setting.

October 5 Hispanic Heritage Street Festival/Health Fair 10 am-5 pm.
A family friendly Family friendly event: Live Entertainment, Food Booths, Crafters, Cultural displays, specialty booths, children's activities, informational booths, and health agencies. Latin Dancing Workshops & dance exhibitions, make and take art.

October 12 Learn Basic Watercolor, Talk stories about watercolor how to do learn some quick simple techniques. Facilitated by Jmmy Tablante

October 19 West meets East
Draw out the letters of your name and watch as intricate patterns and design emerge. Then have fun watching as your identity transforms from an abstract artwork into a beautiful colorful Japanese crane. Facilitated by Lauren Okano

October 26 Layered Mini Junque Journal - Got scraps? Bring your paper scraps (such as card stock, printer paper, old book pages, junk mail envelopes, etc.). We'll turn these scraps into a cool little junque journal that's not junky. You'll be proud to show this book to your friends (unless you have top secret stuff written in it)! We'll also make an unusual deconstructed envelope to tuck into the journal (to hide your top secret stuff).

Facilitated by Hope Hamada, PE, MBA (paper engineer, mini book artist)

Best weekend and after 5 pm weekday parking: municipal parking lots $3 all day or $.50/hour
Weekday rates: first 2 hours $1.50 each hour after that its $3 an hour
